

CHECKLIST FOR APPLICATION TO THE NUCLEAR MEDICINE PROGRAM

- Advisement with Nuclear Medicine Program
- Deadline First Friday in April or as announced each semester
- Application Packet – Include a passport photo. Make sure to sign your application
 - Application
 - Federal Race and Ethnicity Code Form
 - Authorization to Contact Employers Form
 - Academic Dishonesty Form
- 3 References
 - Reference Forms
 - Letters of Recommendation (Each reference should include the reference form)
- All transcripts If current UNM student, unofficial copies. LoboTrax is acceptable (w/ cumulative GPA of 2.5+). Official transcripts are required for other schools.
- Current grades for courses in progress in Fall/Spring semester of application (Note from instructors with current grade)
- Letter of Intent, address to the Nuclear Medicine Selection Committee on way you wish to be accepted to the Nuclear Medicine Program
- Experience working with patients in a medical setting (nuclear medicine applicants should complete 40 hours of observation in a nuclear medicine department)
 - Observation Log Sheet

PROCESS AFTER DEADLINE

Applications are reviewed and interviewees selected

Letters sent to all applicants regarding the interview status

Selection committee meets

Letters sent to all interviewees regarding selection status